Fairview Elementary receives visit from Kraft Foods

Ten volunteers from Kraft Foods in Wilkes-Barre volunteered their time to teach the Junior Achievement Our Families program to first-grade students at Fairview Elementary School. Through the program students learned about the roles people play in the local economy and within their own families. Activities focused on needs, wants, jobs, skills and interdependence. All Junior Achievement in-classroom programs focus on financial literacy, work-readiness and entrepreneurship. Anyone interested in becoming a JA in-classroom volunteer can contact Katie Rossi, 570-602-3600, or e-mail krossi@janepa.org. Program participants at Fairview Elementary, from left, first row, are Joseph Otero, Emily Kline, Allison Gugliotti, Joshua Kollar, Billy Everett and Victoria Casarella. Second row: Brooke Keil, Stephanie Pollock, Jack Brumagin, Kyer Duefield, David Boman, Grace Jungermann and Jerney Alvarez. Third row: Mrs. Johnson, Miss Mailynn, Erik Fredmund, Sam Biscotto, Miss Angela, Caleb Kondraski, Julia Dixon, Zayne Dunsmuir, Madison Hite and Zeelan Gregory.
