Nonprofits benefit from Give Camp

Seven regional nonprofit organizations recently benefited from the services of informational technology volunteers during the 2011 NEPA GiveCamp at Misericordia University. Volunteers created websites, improved nonprofits presence on the Internet, and helped to create a social network presence. The regional nonprofits that received assistance were Dress for Success Lackawanna, Junior Achievement of NEPA, Young's Funny Farm, Help Line, Back Mountain Food Pantry, Peace and Justice Center, and the Back Mountain Men's Ecumenical Group. Some of the participants, from left, first row: Jim Wilce, Diversified Information Technologies; Jeff Li, Solid Cactus Web.com; and Jason Gaylord, United One Resources. Second row: Vic Ambruso, Guard Insurance; Michael A. MacDowell, president, Misericordia University; Daryl Davis, Leader Services; and Michael Lukatchik, United One Resources.
